Chino, CA – The City of Chino celebrates another year of fun and games with the two-week-long Chino Corporate Challenge. The annual Chino Corporate Challenge hosted seven teams representing the Chino Valley competing for medals and bragging rights. This year's teams included the City of Chino, the City of Chino Hills, Hussmann Corporation, NFI, Allegiance STEAM Academy, Chino Valley Unified School District, and the Chino Valley Chamber of Commerce.

The Chino Corporate Challenge brings together teams from the cities of Chino and Chino Hills for friendly competition with other public agencies and local businesses in a variety of gaming and sporting competitions such as boat races, golf, volleyball, basketball, relay races, bingo, tug-of-war, game night, trivia, and more. The event concludes with teams competing in Casino Night games including blackjack, craps, and roulette. Chino brought the trophy to City Hall after getting it back from last year's winner, Hussmann Corporation.

"I am so proud of Team Chino," said City Manager Linda Reich, who happens to have quite the cache of Corporate Challenge gold medals. "Winning is great but participating in Corporate Challenge also supports camaraderie. It lets our employees work in teams with City colleagues and get to know colleagues from other agencies and local businesses."

Spectators cheered on players and added to the fun. Company pride was on display with NFI taking 3rd Place and being the unofficial "Team Spirit" winner.

The final standings are:

1st Place – City of Chino

2nd Place – City of Chino Hills

3rd Place – NFI

Sportsmanship Award – Allegiance STEAM Academy
